

I can't afford my medications. Can I get them for less, or free?

Pharmacy Checker is an independent source of information on online and mail-order pharmacies. It publishes pharmacy ratings, profiles, and drug price comparisons online at www.pharmacychecker.com

The Partnership for Prescription Assistance website has information on over 150 pharmaceutical patient assistance programs which offer low-income, uninsured or underinsured patients free or low-cost medications.
www.pparx.org

RxAssist offers a comprehensive database assistance program run by the pharmaceutical companies.
www.rxassist.org

Needy Meds has information of medication assistance programs, including disease based assistance programs.
www.needymeds.org

Some major retailers offer lower-cost medication:

Ralphs www.ralphs.com/pharmacy

Walmart www.walmart.com/pharmacy

Target www.target.com/pharmacy

All offer over 300 generic medications for $4 for a 30-day supply and $10 for a 3-month supply.

Costco also offers discounts via their prescription program to members who do not have insurance coverage available.
www.costco.com